

out of their busy day to pick-up a favorite book and read to a young boy or girl, a class or a group of students;

Whereas reading is a catalyst for our children's future academic success, their preparation for America's jobs of the future, and our nation's ability to compete in the global economy;

Whereas the distinguished Chairman Jim Jeffords and Ranking Member Ted Kennedy of the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee have provided significant leadership in the area of community involvement in reading through their participation in the Everybody Wins! program;

Whereas Chairman Jim Jeffords has been recognized for his leadership in reading by Parenting Magazine;

Whereas prominent sports figures such as National Read Across America Day Honorary Chairman Cal Ripken of the Baltimore Orioles baseball team, Sandy Alomar of the Cleveland Indians, and members of the Atlanta Falcons football team have dedicated substantial time, energy and resources to encourage young people to experience the joy and fun of reading;

Whereas the 105th Congress made an historic commitment to reading through the passage of the Reading Excellence Act which focused on traditionally successful phonics instruction, tutorial assistance grants for at-risk kids, and literacy assistance for parents: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) recognizes March 2, 1999 as National Read Across America Day; and

(2) expresses its wishes that every child in every American city and town has the ability and desire to read throughout the year, and receives the parental and adult encouragement to succeed and achieve academic excellence.

ORDERS FOR WEDNESDAY, MARCH 3, 1999

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, March 3. I further ask that on Wednesday, immediately following the prayer, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, the time for the two leaders be reserved, and the Senate then proceed to the time for debate on the motion to proceed to S. 280.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, the Senate, then, will convene tomorrow at 9:30 and resume consideration of the motion to proceed to the education flexibility partnership bill. There will have been a total of 4 hours for debate on the motion tomorrow morning, and following adoption of the motion, we will begin consideration of the bill itself. Amendments to the bill are expected to be offered and debated throughout Wednesday's session and for the remainder of the week. Therefore, Senators should expect rollcall votes throughout the day on Wednesday and Thursday and possibly Friday in an effort to make substantial progress on this important piece of legislation. After I have a chance to consult with the Democratic leader, we will give further information about the schedule on Friday and on Monday of next week. I yield the floor.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. ALLARD. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 6:34 p.m., adjourned until Wednesday, March 3, 1999, at 9:30 a.m.
